

Junior Achievement Presents: Dale Carnegie Generation Next

Today, the world is more complex, competitive and demanding than ever before. Young people often need to balance school, work, and relationships, while at the same time, working and planning for their future. The result can often lead to increased pressure and stress.

Dale Carnegie Training's Generation Next program is designed to prepare young people for the real world. It gives them the tools they need to reach their goals and live up to their full potential at school, home, and work. The program content focuses on five key areas that are critical for future success:

- Building Self Confidence
- Enhancing Communication Skills
- Interpersonal Skill Development
- Teamwork and Leadership Skills
- Effective Attitude Management

Generation Next curriculum was developed with feedback from students. It consists of a kick-off session, followed by eight 3-hour, highly interactive sessions that include real-life scenarios and role-playing. Parents, guardians, and immediately family members are encouraged to attend the first and final sessions for kick-off and graduation.
