

Anne Douglas-Minnich Future Enterprises Memorial Scholarship Presented through the Wilson Education Foundation

Anne Douglas-Minnich was dedicated to her work with special education students, and throughout her career, she served in various roles at schools in Berks County related to the special education field. Anne was the Wilson High School Supervisor of Special Education from 2011 until she passed away in January 2015. Anne had a positive impact on many Wilson special education students with whom she interacted. In order for Anne's legacy to continue to have an effect on the lives of special education students in the Wilson School District, Anne's family will provide one annual scholarship to be presented to a Wilson High School Senior from the Special Education Department who demonstrates intention to pursue post-secondary education or technical training (to a two or four year institution) after graduation. Please submit the following to the WHS Special Education Office by FRIDAY, MAY 4, 2018:
