Generally, you will be happiest in a job that matches your personality type. It is a good idea to look at the jobs listed for the two or three personality types that you have the highest scores.

Based on this assessment, your most dominant personality types are:

- Conventional
- Artistic
- Enterprising
- Realistic

Realistic

- Likes to work with animals, tools, or machines; generally avoids social activities like teaching, healing, and informing others;
- Has good skills in working with tools, mechanical or electrical drawings, machines, or plants and animals;
- Values practical things you can see, touch, and use like plants and animals, tools, equipment, or machines; and
- Sees self as practical, mechanical, and realistic

Persons having a Realistic personality type "dominate" this environment. There are more of them than there are people of other personality types. For example, at a construction site there will be more persons having a "Realistic" personality than there will be people who have a Social or Artistic type.

"Realistic" people create a "Realistic" environment. For example, they particularly value people who are practical and mechanical -- who are good at working with tools, mechanical or electrical drawings, machines, or animals.

Examples of occupations that have a Realistic environment are:

Farmer	Forester	Fire Fighter
Police Officer	Flight Engineer	Pilot
Carpenter	Electrician	Diesel Mechanic
Locomotive Engineer	Truck Driver	Locksmith

The two work environments that are closest to the Realistic type are Conventional and Investigative. The farthest away is the Social type.

Artistic

- Likes to do creative activities like art, drama, crafts, dance, music, or creative writing; generally avoids highly ordered or repetitive activities;
- Has good artistic abilities -- in creative writing, drama, crafts, music, or art;
- Values the creative arts -- like drama, music, art, or the works of creative writers; and
- Sees self as expressive, original, and independent.

Persons having an Artistic personality type "dominate" this environment. There are more of them than there are people of other personality types. For example, among a group of professional musicians there will be more persons of an "Artistic" personality than there will be people who have a Conventional type.

"Artistic" people create an "Artistic" environment. For example, they particularly value people who are expressive, original, and independent -- who have good artistic abilities in creative writing, drama, crafts, music, or art.

Examples of occupations that have an Artistic environment are:

Dancer	Book Editor	Art Teacher
Clothes Designer	Graphic Designer	Comedian
Actor	Disk Jockey
Composer	Musician

The two work environments that are closest to the Artistic type are Investigative and Social. The farthest away is the Conventional type.

Enterprising

- Likes to lead and persuade people, and to sell things and ideas; generally avoids activities that require careful observation and scientific, analytical thinking;
- Is good at leading people and selling things or ideas;
- Values success in politics, leadership, or business; and
- Sees self as energetic, ambitious, and sociable.

Persons having an Enterprising personality type "dominate" this environment. There are more of them than there are people of other personality types. For example, in a business or legal setting there will be more persons having an "Enterprising" personality than there will be people who have a Investigative type.

"Enterprising" people create an "Enterprising" environment. For example, they particularly value people who are energetic, ambitious, and sociable -- who are good at politics, leading people and selling things or ideas.

Examples of occupations that have a Enterprising environment are:

Auctioneer	Sales Person	Travel Agent
Recreation Leader	Judge	Lawyer

City Manager	Sales Manager	Bank President
TV Newscaster	Customs Inspector	Camp Director
Hotel Manager	Real Estate Agent	School Principal

The two work environments that are closest to the Enterprising type are Social and Conventional. The furthest away is the Investigative type.

Conventional

- Likes to work with numbers, records, or machines in a set, orderly way; generally avoids ambiguous, unstructured activities
- Is good at working with written records and numbers in a systematic, orderly way;
- Values success in business; and
- Sees self as orderly, and good at following a set plan.

Persons having a Conventional personality type "dominate" this environment. There are more of them than there are people of other personality types. For example, in an office of a bank or real estate company there will be more persons having a "Conventional" personality than there will be people who have a Artistic type.

"Conventional" people create an "Conventional" environment. For example, they particularly value people who are orderly, and good at following a set plan -- good at working with written records and numbers in a systematic, orderly way.

Examples of occupations that have a Conventional environment are:

Court Clerk	Secretary	Bookkeeper
Bank Teller	Post Office Clerk	Mail Carrier
Typist	Title Examiner	Timekeeper

The two work environments that are closest to the Conventional type are Realistic and Enterprising. The farthest away is the Artistic type.
