

Chick-fil-A/Keiser Family Scholarship Application

Tara and Scott Keiser (Chick-fil-A owners) proudly offer scholarships to a deserving student who strongly commits to their school and community. Chick-fil-A aims to be the "world's most caring company," focusing on creating a positive experience for guests and team members, and supporting communities through their Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) pillars. Supporting this foundation, the ideal candidate will have a proven track record of leadership, active participation in community service initiatives, and a passion for making a positive impact. This scholarship recognizes students who exemplify the values of hard work, integrity, and a desire to make a difference. Two recipients will be chosen, each receiving $1,500.
